THREE CONTRACTS SETTLED

Advance Announcement of Attractions for Next Season's Lecture

Contracts have been closed for three of the attractions which are to appear in Omaha next season in the lecture course to be given by the teachers of the public schools. Lorado Taft of Chicago will deliver a lecture on art. Hon. Charles A. Towns of Duluth will lecture and the Slay-Woman's Symphony orchestra of twenty-five pieces will give a concert. Both Mr. Taft and Mr. Towns are prepared to give several different lectures and the committee will not make a choice of subjects until next fall.

It is likely that William J. Long, author of "Wilderness Ways" and several other books of animal life, will also be one of the lecturers in the course. A contract with Mr. Long has not been closed, but Superintendent Pearse says that terms have been agreed upon. Mr. Long's books are similar to the works of Ernest Seton-Thompson. Josiah Flynt of "Tramping with Tramps' fame is another lecturer who is being considered. There will be seven numbers in

Paint Business

From the way paints are being advertised in Omaha it would sem the easiest thing in the world is the painting business. But our experience is some of their customers get stuck. We have had three of their cases lately. One party wanted some QUICK DRYING varnish. They got it—"IN THE NECK." The varnish would not dry in four or five days, but it was varnish. Another fellow got some other varnish, it was so thick it would not spread. He went back and kicked. "Put turpentine in it," they said. He did. Still it wouldn't work. Then he came and paid us for the right stuff. He got it and it worked. The other fellow didn't know. See? We sell MASURY'S PAINTS. They are standard. Nothing better. Information cheerfully given for applying STAINS, FLOOR OILS, VARNISHES, etc.
